

Stockholm M 304

A stylish symmetry is the hallmark of the exterior of this two storey design, complemented by sleek, modern interior styling. Level one is all about family life, with a large media room, a separate study and the integrated kitchen, dining and living area – leading directly to the outdoor entertaining space. Moving upstairs, the modern aesthetic continues in the master suite with ensuite and walk-in robe. There’s also an adjoining retreat area and a study nook.
